

Old Barnes, who in the red and blue of the Dwyers, raced brilliantly in 1881 and 1882 died at Kyle, Tex., a few days ago. He was almost a great racehorse in his day and threatened to divide 2 and 3-year-old form with Miss Washford and George Kinney. Barnes was seven years old, by Billet—Mercedes, the dam of The Butterflies, and had for years been used as a sire by O. G. Parke. Bowen & Co. raced the colt in his early form and bred him.

The Fosters are giving Dr. Rice a great preparation for the Brooklyn Handicap. He has been taken up and is doing good work on the roads about St. Louis.

Byron McClelland announces that he will race a together in the West this year. His year-olds are not much and the stable must win most of its 1896 spoils through Caesarian, Prince Lett, Nimrod and Moylan. The former was nearly first-class last season, improving with time. Nimrod is Huntress' brother. He showed some quality at times, but was a class far lower and his best form that of the spring.

Eugene Leigh will sell thirty-nine yearlings, the product of LaBelle, at Morris Park, May 27. A lot of them are by Brandee, seventeen per cent of whose children are winners. Mr. Leigh is now the sole owner of the portable horse stall, having bought out his former partner, J. Moses. The appliance is an ingenious one. By the use of a few fixtures an ordinary pen is changed into comfortable traveling quarters for a race horse. The economy of the plan is wonderful.

In addition to the poolroom established at Edgewood Park, a Cincinnati suburb, Ohio, Holinger has opened one at West Covington, Ky. The Louisville poolrooms are still open, too. The St. Asaph people are credited with an effort to open a race track at historic Harper's Ferry in West Virginia, where the law is favorable.

President Beauchamp, of the Middle States Racing Circuit, was in town yesterday conferring with Secretary Crevelling of the Indiana tracks about his racing plans for 1897.

Referring to the summer harness meeting and horse show at Washington Park, that high-class sportsman, Frank S. Morton, says: "The North Western Breeders will endeavor to give the most attractive out-of-door show possible in connection with their trotting, many of its exhibitions will be such that cannot be given at an in-door show. For instance, we shall have a lot of pony races for one quarter mile, tandem teams at a mile, carriage teams at a mile and a lot of special displays at short distances. The Polo company will make some nice exhibits. They will do their best to give the public a high-class entertainment of the best order."

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., March 16.—Adam Andrews, regarded as a phenomenon fell before Macdonough's Zamar II to-day, and Major Cook beat Babe Murphy. These were the only favorites to fail. Behringer, heavily backed by the Hildreth faction, won the Hoyerweck steeplechase. The handicap fourth on the card, was scratched to pieces and a new race substituted. The summary:

The above Stallions I have taken the liberty to place at La Belle Stud. I also from Lexington, Ky. on the old Frankfort Pike. Strong and durable of service. Better prices given than elsewhere in any of the States.

The La Belle Stallions were all first-class Race Horses and Stake Winners. Their kind and generous on the Turf has earned them nearly $50,000. Many looked to my Stallions with admiration, and with a good box-stall and some feed at $10 per month during breeding season.
